

Beethoven Five, it has survived
The test of time, we love it now, I don't know how,
I s'pose it's posh but oh my gosh it makes me vow
To sing it loudly and very proudly
Beethoven's Number Five.

Beethoven wrote many wonderful tunes
We can learn here at school, as a rule,
It is cool learning classical drool,
Written hundreds of years, long ago,
That maybe so but I know:

Mendelssohn, Mozart, all their music's from the heart
Schubert, Schumann, their songs are anything but calm
Gustav Mahler, anything you'd rather?
Rachmaninov, Ravel they never fail to cast their spell
Beethoven's Five's alive!

I love to sing and I hope I stay in tune
My brother and sister, they hope I finish soon!
