HOMEWORK

- Given detailed instructions, often published on blog. Presentation is important- lined paper for English squared paper for maths if not working on the given sheet. Paper available from classroom drawers- children expected to get it themselves! Part of being independent and organised.
- Homework Folders
- If can't complete a piece, just send your child with a note. 30 minutes of work time expected. We understand life can get hectic!
😊
- Preparation for Year 7- deadlines and responsibility
- Marking: Peer marking according to Steps for Success - in depth marking for class work
- Plenty of opportunities for children to share their achievement in class

READING JOURNALS

Reading is breathing in , Writing is breathing out!

- Checked every week- should be in school everyday
- Children are expected to read at least 5 times a week for approximately 20 minutes
- They should be recording:
 - ✓ Book title
 - ✓ Pages Read
 - ✓ Wow/new words (can't find "new" words, is text Challenging enough?)

😊😊 SATS 😊😊

Monday 9th May - Friday 13th May

Children are well prepared and it is looked upon as being the same as any other assessment week

Assessments take place during the mornings.

We ensure that all of the areas are covered before the SATs take place.
Writing is on going assessment throughout the year.

Preparation

Our recommendations

- Regular reading is vital
- Support us with our culture on work ethic
- New heightened expectations: we all need to work hard.
- Homework deadlines: important message
- SATs "busters": SPAG, Maths - to stay in school
